Conference Area

eO:™ Multi-Purpose Office Applications

An eO: office is ready for anything. How you want it. When you want it.

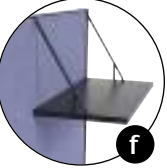

A variety of modular worksurfaces connect to create work areas to support all of your paper management, conferencing and electronic equipment needs. eO:’s panels provide privacy and additional storage capabilities. Conduit/corner posts help to bring surge protected power to each workstation.

eO:™ Team members

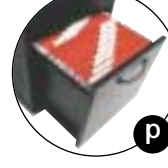

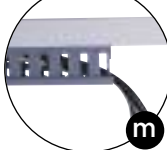

Easel.
eO:s double-sided, dry erase easel-on-wheels makes it easy to get your message across. Light but sturdy, it does double duty as a display board or projection screen. And when it's no longer the center of attention, it blends in nicely as an area divider.
